

Sheep and Goat Workshop

Date: April 19th

Location: First Baptist Church
555 Walnut Street, Osceola, Mo. 64776

Time: 4:00 p. m. – 8:30 p. m.

Topics and Class Discussion:

- This workshop will include lecture, discussion, and hands – on activity:
 - Body Condition Scoring
 - FAMACHA© Scoring
 - Fecal Egg Count
- Participants will become certified in the use of the FAMACHA© eye anemia system.
 - The FAMACHA© system, along with the Five Point Check©, is used to determine when a sheep, goat, or camelid requires deworming.

Instructors:

- Susan Jaster
 - Lincoln University Cooperative Extension Small Farm Outreach Program
- Gene Schmitz
 - MU Extension Regional Livestock Specialist
- Patrick Davis
 - MU Extension Regional Livestock Specialist

Cost: $35 per person

- Class limited to 25 paid participants (minimum of 10 paid participants to have the class)
- Deadline to register is April 16th
 - Fee will cover supper, refreshments and handouts
 - Fee needs to be paid prior to registration deadline and no refunds after the deadline
- To register or for more information contact the St. Clair County MU Extension Center at 417 – 646 – 2419 or by email at stclairco@missouri.edu

Thank you to Linda Heryford for providing animals for hands – on demonstration

Workshop Sponsored By:

